

LENSFIELD
HOTEL
CAMBRIDGE

LENSFIELD HOTEL

53 Lensfield Road,
Cambridge.
CB2 1EN

Telephone: 0044 (0) 1223 355017

Fax: 0044 (0) 1223 312022

Email

enquiries@lensfieldhotel.co.uk
reservations@lensfieldhotel.co.uk

HOW TO ARRIVE BY FERRY

The notorious East Coast Port of Harwich has a regular succession of liners and fast ferries cruising into its modern terminal.

Timetables and prices for all major operators in one easy search.

- The Stena HSS ferries across from the Hoek van Holland in just three hours 40 minutes, alternatively there is the more conventional overnight crossings aboard with cabin accommodation. DFDS (Scandinavian Seaways) has modern ships sailing from
- Holland, Scandinavia, Germany and beyond. Ferries from Harwich & Newcastle to Northern Europe and Scandinavia. Please visit: <http://www.dfdsseaways.co.uk>

Driving from Harwich, you can drive into a haven of peace and tranquillity of some of the most beautiful English landscapes in the UK.

Follow the main A12 road from London to just north of Colchester, take the A120 to Harwich.

From Cambridge you take the A14 straight to Ipswich, then the A45 bypass round Ipswich, the A137 to Manningtree, and from there follow signs to Harwich.

From Norwich you take the A140 to north of Ipswich, then the A45 bypass round Ipswich, the A137 to Manningtree, and from there follow signs to Harwich.

However, if you prefer the short sea crossings from Calais to Dover there is the award-winning seafrance Rodin which is the fastest ferry on the Dover to Calais route. Launched in November 2001 the vessel, built in Finland, is the largest ever to operate on the route. Please visit <http://www.seafrance.co.uk>

BUS DIRECTIONS

Regular bus/coach services run between Harwich and London, and several other towns in the UK. Telephone Numbers: National Express: 087058080801 or <http://www.nationalexpress.com>, Travelline: 08706082608 or <http://www.traveline.org.uk>

Information for disabled customers

Disabled customers call: Tel: 0044 (0) 121 423 8479

For those with hearing difficulties – Minicom Line; 0044 (0) 121 455 0086

RAIL DIRECTIONS

Trains run from London Liverpool Street station to Harwich International. Local rail services arrive at the terminal building, where an escalator will take you directly to the check in point.

For the more adventurous type who prefers the Channel Tunnel crossing or Eurostar, (the high-speed passenger train operating between the UK and Europe - Le Shuttle 0044 (0) 8705 353535 <http://www.eurotunnel.com> / Eurostar : 0044 (0) 8705 186186 <http://www.eurostar.com>) then it is an easy motorway drive up to the East of England/Cambridge via the M20 or M2, M25 and M11.

The University of Cambridge provides information about the city of Cambridge and the local area to include: airports, bus services, car hire and breakdown services, park and ride, taxis, trains, art galleries, book shops, theatres, cinemas and language schools. Please visit <http://www.cam.ac.uk/CambArea>

